Street Medicine Project

The Street Medicine Project is a volunteer, student-run outreach group aimed at providing free health care to the San Bernardino homeless population.

Workshop objectives:

- Understand the theological and ethical themes that drive the Street Medicine Project
- Learn how LLU Street Medicine creates a rich, multidisciplinary learning environment
- See how key facets of the LLU Street Medicine story reflect important new trends in healthcare organization and dedication
- Understand characteristics and challenges of the homeless

Sponsored by the LLU School of Medicine

La Sierra University Drama proudly presents a show guaranteed to boost your immune system with a generous dose of the best medicine--laughter.

Hie thee thither to see three men in tights execute an impossible task in just 97 minutes, a performance of all 37 of the bard's plays in this classic masterpiece of comedy. Hate Shakespeare? You'll love this show. Love Shakespeare? You'll love this show and "get" more of the jokes.

If you don't laugh we'll reimburse the money you paid to purchase your ticket. In fact we'll double it.

Brought to you by the members of the Loma Linda University School of Religion who possess a healthy sense of humor and who care about you. Don't miss this opportunity. Take a break from your studies to LOL or ROTFLOL.
