SPIRITUAL LIFE SERVICE AWARDS

The LLUAHSC Spiritual Life and Wholeness committee seeks to recognize employees who exhibit a special commitment to the spiritual wholeness of colleagues, patients, students or others. The Spiritual Life Service Awards are given to employees in any LLUAHSC entity.

Criteria for nomination:

- ❖ A vibrant faith in God that leads to extraordinary care for the spiritual well-being of others.
- ❖ An effective ability to bring hope and meaning in the midst of educational or healthcare challenges.

To nominate someone you believe deserves this award, please provide the following:

1. Employee name
2. The department they work in
3. A brief paragraph indicating how this individual meets the criteria listed above.
Please be specific about their spiritual influence and service to others.

Note: people previously awarded will not be eligible for three years.

Email your nominations to mrasnic@llu.edu by September 20, 2012

Dr. Gerald Winslow, Vice President for Spiritual Life will present awards at the Spiritual Life and Wholeness Banquet on Tuesday, October 30.
