

CENTER FOR CHRISTIAN BIOETHICS PRESENTS ETHICS IN GREAT FILMS

THE COVE

2010 Emmy Award Winner for Best Documentary Feature
2009 Audience Award Winner at Sundance Film Festival

"★★★★!"

-Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

Filmmakers risk retaliation to reveal the secret herding of 23,000 migrating dolphins into a remote cove in Japan. What happens in the waters of Taiji violates international law and exposes the Japanese to dangerously high levels of mercury.

"The film itself is an act of heroism"

-Scott Weinberg, Cinematica

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY
Center for Christian Bioethics

Wednesday, May 1 &
Thursday, May 2
6:00-8:00 PM
Centennial Complex 3113