

GRANT & CONTRACT PROPOSAL WRITING

LOMA LINDA
UNIVERSITY

School of Public Health

STAT 515 • 3 UNITS • WINTER QUARTER • JANUARY 4 - MARCH 18, 2016
TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS, 1 - 2:50 PM IN NICHOL HALL ROOM 2019

BE A SUCCESSFUL GRANTSWRITER! Enhance your academic potential and professional marketability by enrolling in this practical, skills-oriented course, STAT 515 Grant and Contract Proposal Writing (3 Units) offered during Winter Quarter, January 4 - March 18, 2016.

By preparing a research or program/service proposal in class which could be potentially submitted to a funding agency, you will learn key grantsmanship techniques that work. For more information contact J. S. Job, MD, DrPH (jjob@llu.edu). Employees: please check with Talent Management Services for tuition benefits. Registration opens on November 30, 2015.

This module-based course:

- Presents an overview of the basic principles and practice of successful grantsmanship both from a research and programmatic perspective;
- Provides a comprehensive understanding of the different processes, structures, factors and essential skills required when developing competitive proposals that are funded;
- Describes the various key elements involved in proposal preparation such as identifying potential funding resources (government and private/foundations), formulating objectives, determining appropriate project/research design and evaluation methods, building budgets and sustainability plans, and understanding the grant review process.

